

More than 3,000 people enjoyed fellowship and sampled delicious homemade chili at the recent 22nd annual Red Gold Chili Cook Off. The day's cool and sunny weather was perfect for watching the 27 chili-cooking entrants work, enjoying chili and visiting the 24 craft and food booths. A variety of performers provided live entertainment throughout the event.

The winning team was Edward Jones Investments with a prize of $300. Second and third place went to the Church of God with two separate entries. The Church of God also won the People's Choice award. Star Financial Bank was chosen as the best decorated booth.
