

The latest class of Level 3 Gold Belts have completed their training. Graduates have learned and applied TPM methods to improve line efficiency on Line 1 in Elwood, as well as put into practice Project Management skills learned in level 3. All Gold Belt Peak Practitioners should be capable of facilitating and/or leading projects during the upcoming year.

Congratulations to each of our new Gold Belts

