

Healthy Holiday Cooking School

Red Gold and WQME sponsored the Healthy Holiday Cooking School, October 29, as a fundraiser for the Madison County 4-H Association. Proceeds from the sale of tickets went to the 4-H to provide programs for the youth of our community. .

The Masters of Ceremonies for the evening was Paul Poteet, Central Indiana Weatherman and Matt Rust, Program Director for WQME. Our featured guest was Owner/Chef Tony Huelster from Bonge's Tavern who shared some great holiday recipes to over 300 people in attendance. The people in attendance received a goodie bag and had a chance to win several great door prizes. this fun and informational event

